These Pills have been sold in this city and the neighboring country for the last twelve years, and during that time have acquired a character (for safe and effectual operation) over all medicines of that class ever offered to the public. Their composition is known to and approved of by several of the most eminent physicians of this place. The subscribers, with a view to extend their sale in the country, and to render them an object to country druggists and others, have reduced their wholesale price very considerably; and to accommodate individuals, will furnish them for the future in whole boxes at 50 cents, and half boxes at 25 cents each.—To prevent imposition from counterfeits, each direction will be signed by Dr. Henry Wilkins, the original, and D. & C. Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of

Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.

"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence." Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.

The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.

The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.

The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.

The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paterna soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U. States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

POTATOES.

To the editor of the Pittsfield Sun.

It is a fact not sufficiently known, that a great proportion of the Potatoe seed is deposited at one end, or side, and hardly any of that part which, while growing, attaches it by the root to the vine.

It is very easy to distinguish the root end; for we generally find a withered piece of the root at that end; the sprouts from the seeds will be found at the opposite end of the long potatoes, or side of those more globular.

If the the potatoe is of an oblong form, in any degree, if we cut from the seed end about one fourth part of the length of it, we get nearly all the valuable seeds therein—take that and plant it—the other part lay by in the cellar, for spring and summer use, at the table. It will be found, that as the seeds are taken off, little i any of the substance left will be lost, and the potatoe will continue perfectly fit for eating at the table two months longer than those which have not been thus cut. This experiment has been tried in some towns in this county for four years past, and has always succeeded.—Some farmers here have made it a practice to begin cutting their potatoes in this manner, early in January, and they put their seed end into vessels, mingling a little loam with them, to keep them from getting too dry. In this manner more than two thirds of the seed potatoes, thus planted, may be saved for family use, or for feeding out to cattle, &c. and they will continue more palatable and profitable to the consumer. The crop to the farmer is more abundant, because in cutting off the seed ends, in this manner, scarcely any of the fibres, or roots of the seed are destroyed. It has been the common practice to cut the large potatoe for planting in four or five pieces, paying no regard to which is the root or the seed end of the potatoe, and in this way, many of the seed, sprouts or chits, have been destroyed. The writer of this tried the experiment last year, and he knew nothing of it himself before the last of April last, and has related its effects to many farmers, who had never heard it before.

If any farmer should be fearful of losing his crop, and so unwilling to risk it, it is hoped that he will try it at least in 50 or a hundred hills, and thereby he will find, that it will be the best method of planting in future.

TO INCREASE A BARLEY CROP,

Dissolve three pounds of copperas in a pail-full of boiling water, and to this add as much dung puddle water as will cover three or four bushels of barley, stir it, and let it steep four and twenty hours when the seed is spread and drained, sift on fine lime, which fits it for sowing. Barley grows well on almost all kinds of soil, if properly managed, but that which is moderately light is perhaps the most suitable. The land should be well subdued by previous tillage and well heated with dung, lime, ashes, or other hot manures, if you would have an abundant crop.

From the Connecticut Courant.

THE BRIEF REMARKER.

Vanity, or the indefinable human quality called by that name, being the subject now under consideration, the following plain little story is somewhat proper to open with.

The Baron de Tott, happening to come, of a sudden, into the company of a knot of Turkish ladies, who, from the usage of their county and the precepts of their religion, were in duty bound to be veiled always in the presence of strangers of the other sex; he remarks, in the book of his travels, that the elderly matrons made haste to veil themselves, but the young and the handsome remained with their faces uncovered for some time after his entrance.

Now, if this be a notable instance of female nature, it springs, nevertheless from a principle belonging to the general nature of our species, and which operates with nearly equal force in both sexes.—It is not Woman only that is vain:—"Surely every Man walketh in a vain shew"—at least in some one respect or other.

There scarcely is any single ingredient that more thoroughly pervades human nature, than the one that goes by the general name of vanity. Hence it was to vanity that the cunning tempter addressed his temptation in the garden, with such deplorable success; and to vanity he addressed his temptations in the wilderness, where he was so signally foiled. He knew the weakest side of humanity, and there made his attacks.

The strange quality called vanity, is a particular modification of the general principle of selfishness, and is exactly the reverse of the scriptural precept, Let each esteem other better than himself. It were difficult to define it, and still more difficult to describe it in all its symptoms, and trace it throughout all its numerous branches: and yet, if you observe, with a close and discriminating eye, it is impossible to mistake it; for to the mind's ken, it is clearly visible, in its very shape, however undefinable and indescribable.

Vanity is as it were "the froth of pride," and is distinguishable from downright unmixed pride, which is stiff and unbending: whereas vanity is flexible, and bends any way and every way to set itself off. But though vanity is different in some respects from pride, it has, in its nature, perhaps quite as much selfishness; self-display being its constant and invariable object, or rather the pole-star, to which its every thought and every action tendeth.

Although the principal food of vanity, is wealth, rank, learning, wit, beauty, eloquence, strength, valor, or the whatever something that distinguishes the individual from the multitude; yet it can live, and thrive, on food of almost every kind and nature. "We may see vanity living in a hovel, vanity clothed in rags, vanity begging by the way, vanity conjoined with bodily ugliness and deformity:" it is to be found, as well in savage, as in civilized life, as well amongst the squalid and beggarly race of gypsies, as in polished society. In a word, it can find nourishment and gratification in all extremes—in the haggard looks and squalid habiliments of a hermit, provided they confer distinction—as much as in brocades, pearls and diamonds. It is quite as much gratified with the distinction of Humility, as with that of loftiness and splendor. If a Cardinal of the Romish Church is vain of the lofty title, His Eminence, the Greek patriarch of Constantinople is probably no less vain of the humble title, His Lowliness. Nor was the vanity of the most lordly and aspiring of all the Popes of Rome, ever more gratified perhaps, than when, under the gaze of the public, they were employed, upon their knees, in washing the feet of some of their beggarly vassals. In sober truth, vanity is never more conveniently lodged, than when she lays concealed under the disguise of eminent humility.

Sometimes, Vanity, to gain her point, disclaims even her own existence. I say it without vanity—I speak it without the least ostentation—is often made the prologue to self-commendation.

It is questionable whether man would be a laughing animal, if he were not a vain one. But, without all question, it is vanity, that most generally affects his risibles when he laughs at his fellow man.

In many instances, Public Virtue never would have gone so far, if Vanity had not borne it company. John, for example, never had driven so furiously, to carry forward a holy cause, had not vanity rode along with him.—"Come see my zeal!" What is called Liberality, frequently is nothing more than the vanity of giving. We are exceedingly prone to give, (whenever we give at all) hoping to receive—if not in kind, at least in credit and honor. So, also, Vanity gives praise, in hopes of receiving it back again with interest.

It is owing to vanity, that we voluntarily endure unhappiness, to appear happy; that we rob ourselves of necessaries, to appear as if our circumstances were plentiful and affluent. Many a one is at more expense in maintaining Vanity's brood, than it would cost him to bring up, in a plain way, a family of children

Vanity undervalues itself, with a view to extort praise. "When any one" (saith Dr. Johnson) "complains of the want of what he is known to possess in an eminent degree, he waits with impatience to be contradicted."

Reproof is often given, not so much to mend the reproved, as to shew that the reprover is free from the faults himself.

Advice is often offered, rather to give the adviser the air of wisdom, than to benefit the advised.

Secrets, often times are divulged, more from the vanity of one's having been intrusted with them, than from any other motive.

As vanity—in different proportions, variously directed, mixed up with different forms—is a universal quality or principle in mankind, so it belongs to our species exclusively perhaps. For we have no reason to think that, either above or below us, in the whole universe of God, there is any other race or order of creatures fully like to man in this respect.

Nor man, nor woman, is there, who hath not so much as a little spice of vanity either in external conduct, or in the secret folds of the mind and heart. In a moderate degree, this marvellous quality of our species is not inconsistent with real and great moral excellence; but in the extreme, or when it is the master-principle, it is then, that plague of the heart, which taints all the springs of action. Neither is there any thing more carefully to be guarded against, and nipt in the bud, in the course of early education. Because the extreme of vanity is of near kin to the extreme of avarice,—The very vain person, like the very avaricious one, makes every thing centre in self, and will use as many low and vile tricks for applause, as doth the other for wealth Moreover vanity, like avarice, commonly increases with age, and, like that, the more plenteously it is fed, the more voracious groweth its appetite.

ALEXANDRIA:
THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1818.

From the National Intelligencer.

We have observed, that one of the correspondents of the Boston Palladium questions a fact advanced in support of our act concerning navigation, recently passed, and calls upon Mr. Forsyth (as chairman of the committee of the house of representatives by whom the bill was reported) to establish it. It is not necessary to trouble that gentleman to support in the newspapers what he has advanced on the floor of the house. But, as the correspondent in the Palladium appears sincerely to wish for information, which we have pleasure in imparting when in our possession, we will answer his query by presenting the evidence of the inequality of footing, to our disadvantage, on which American and other foreign vessels are admitted into the British West India colonies.

The act of the British parliament of 27th June, 1805, consolidating the former acts on the subject, admits into the West Indian ports a variety of articles, wool, cotton, tobacco, specie, &c. &c. the produce of any colony or country in America belonging to or under the dominion of any foreign European Sovereign or State," in any foreign single decked vessel, "being owned and navigated by persons inhabiting any of the said colonies or plantations in America, or countries on the continent of America, belonging to, or under the dominion of, any foreign European sovereign or state." The privilege of re-exportation of all imported articles except naval stores, and of exporting rum, is granted in the same act in the same terms, to the complete exclusion of vessels of the United States, in all cases, from that trade.

The title of another act which lies before us, amendatory of that just referred to, sufficiently explains its object. It is "an act to permit the importation of rice, grain and flour from any foreign colonies on the continent of America, into certain ports in the West Indies, and to allow certain articles to be imported from the United States of America into the British provinces in North America for the purpose of exportation to the British Islands in the West Indies." Thus in the very same section of the act, a full permission is given to import into the W. Indies articles, without which they cannot subsist, from other countries of America, whilst from the U. States the same articles may not be imported except in cases of absolute danger of famine, and then only circuitously through the British northern provinces, in order that our navigation may not have the advantage of carrying to them even the articles which are to keep them from starving.

It is presumed that the enquiries of the correspondent of the Palladium are satisfied.

Baltimore, May 4.

Chester Bailey, Esq. agent for the mails, has arrived in this city, with Alexander and Hare, two of the accomplices in the late mail robbery, near Havre de Grace. They are to take their trial in this city in the course of this week.

It is said that Arbuthnot, who was taken at the capture of St. Marks, has been placed in close confinement by General Jackson, awaiting the return of the army to St. Marks, when he will be tried by a court martial. [Sav. Repub.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, of the first respectability, to his friend in Savannah, dated February 23, 1818.

"A rumor has prevailed for some time past, that a divorce was to take place between the Prince Regent and Princess of Wales; and it is now asserted, with confidence, that the application will be made to parliament, during the present session, for that purpose, with a view, it is stated, to form an alliance between the Prince Regent and the Dutchess of Parma, who, as you may see by the prints, is shortly expected in London.

Boston, April 29.

We are indebted to a gentleman who arrived in town yesterday, in the Mermaid, from St. Thomas, for a file of the St. Thomas Tideod, to the 3d inst.—These papers contain some account of late military events on the Spanish Main, but nothing important further than we have received from other sources—The battles which took place near Calaboza, Feb. 20, appear not to have been decisive, although it is evident that the advance of the army of Bolivar was checked, and the alarm which had disquieted the royalists at Caraccas and Laguira subsided. March 3, it is stated that Bolivar was still at Calaboza, and that Paez, with 4000 men, was with him. Morillo with Morales and Lopez, at the head of 4000 men, was at Ortiz, near Villa de Cura. Calrada, another royalist general, with 1000 men, was about three leagues from Calaboza. Another battle was expected. There is no account of any military movement subsequent to this date, but the inhabitants of Laguira and Caraccas were again in great alarm. This state of things gives an additional probability to the report mentioned in Monday's paper, received via Guadaloupe, of successes gained by Bolivar about the end of March.

FROM GIBRALTER.

Mr. Hooper, of the E. C. H. has received by the Henry letters from Mr. Read, his correspondent in Gibraltar, to the 14th March. They announce, that the U. S. squadron was at Messina, except the Peacock, which was at Marseilles, to sail for Messina the 27th April:—

That the Portuguese have a squadron of three frigates, &c. cruizing between the Rock and Apo's hill, to prevent Tunisian corsairs sailing out of the Mediterranean. They had driven two of their cruizers into Gibraltar. From on board one of them, an American, who had turned Turk to preserve his life on some accusation, had escaped by swimming to an American schooner, and had sailed for Isle of May, in the Baltimore brig Abinoam.

That the following important and encouraging commercial regulations, has recently been promulgated by the Spanish government:

The ports of Cadiz, St. Lucar, Seville, Malaga, Almeira, Carthagena, Alicant, Valencia, Taragona, Barcelona, Majorca, Ferol, Coruana, Gijon, Vigo, Bilboa, St. Sebastian, and St. Andero, are declared privileged ports:—Into these ports, foreigners, of nations in amity with Spain, as well as subjects, may import and enter any foreign goods, wares or merchandize (which may be lawfully imported) and may deposit the same in the king's warehouses, for one year, free of duties; during which time, they can be transferred as often as the owners choose, and be exported to any part of the world, also free of duties, excepting to South America: and to S. A. on paying the usual Indies' duties. Depositors, at the time of entry, must make declaration that the goods imported are intented for deposit; and shall pay for storage, two per cent. ad valorem of the goods. At the expiration of the year all goods in the depots will be considered as for Spanish consumption, and be dutied accordingly.—Goods originally entered in Spain for consumption, cannot be exported without special license, and paying the duties.

Spanish colonial produce may also be deposited, and during the year, may be freely exported to other countries, (excepting gold, silver, cochineal and indigo, which must pay the usual duties of entrance and issue.)—After the year they also will be considered as imported for home consumption, and be dutied accordingly.

April 30.

FROM CALCUTTA.

The ship Union, Hitchings, which arrived at this port yesterday from Calcutta, has brought intelligence to January 12, much later than before received. We have received, through Mr. Topliff, a file of papers of the latest date. They are filled with details of military movements, which it is impossible for us to notice, in a short space, in an intelligible manner, on account of the desultory nature of the war. The Mahratta war, against the Peishwa, was considered as nearly terminated, by the dispersion of the force of the latter; but there is no intelligence from this quarter later than already received here from Bombay.

Holkar had taken the field to support the Peishwa, with a large army, a strong British force under lieut. gen. Hyslop, & major gen. Malcolm proceeded against him. They brought him to action Dec. 21, and completely defeated him. The British loss amounted to 4 or 500 men, and that of the enemy is stated at 3000 men, with all his artillery, amounting to 40 pieces, and baggage.

Two victories had been also obtained over the Rajah of Nagpore, who had followed the example of the Peishwa. On the 16th of December general Doveton defeated the Rajah, dispersed his army, took his whole artillery, and entered Nagpore. Dec. 19, brig. gen. Hardyman defeated another army of the Nagpore Rajah near Jubbulpore, and captured 4 pieces of artillery.

No decisive event had occurred in the expedition against the Pindarees The main force will still be employed in this quarter.

It was reported about the 1st of January that an army of Birmahs was preparing to invade the British territory on the Sylbelt frontier, and that 15,000 men were assembled. Some precautionary measures were thought necessary, but it was ascertained that this assembling of men was occasioned by a dispute between two rival Rajahs, and that no hostilities against the British were meditated.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT N. YORK.

Gazette Office, May 4.

IMPORTANT.

The editors of the New-York Gazette have received per the Adriana, the following from their correspondent at Gibraltar, under date of March 23.

"New York flour will not bring more than $9 75; Baltimore and Philadelphia 10 50, at 2 months credit. Rice 6 50 to 6 75."

The same letter adds,

"I have little news to give you. Our squadron are at present at Messina, but are expected here about the 10th to the 15th April; and I suppose Com. Chauncey will leave this for home about April 25. The plague still rages at Algiers, and other ports in Barbary. No communication is permitted between this and the Barbary shore.

"In Spain the greatest misery and distress prevails. The government have resorted to every expedient to raise money but all to no purpose. A meeting of merchants was called in Cadiz a short time since, under a penalty of $50 for every absentee, and a demand made of 120,000 No sum was granted, but the Governor has undertaken to collect what each individual may be willing to give. It is not more than two months since the merchants of that city were squeezed of $15,000.—It appears that Cadiz as well as many other ports in Spain have been made ports of deposit, and not free ports as called by some. The object is to relieve the merchants, and put them in good humor, so that they may squeeze a little more money out of them, neither of which objects I think will be attained.

"About three weeks since the officer who went to the proper department for the pay of his corps found an empty chest, and it is said began to damn his majesty, and all who were connected with him. Another went to the "Terrienti Rey," and told him he would not be responsible for those under his command, if funds were not provided for them very soon. Another meeting of merchants has in consequence been called. If all this can happen after Garay's system of May last, and the monies have been promptly paid into the treasury under that system, and after receiving the 400,000*l.* sterling from G. Britain for abolishing the slave trade, what may be expected in a few months more—nothing short of rebellion, notwithstanding the patience inherent in these people.

"The fleet the Spaniards received from the Dutch, are laid up in dry dock, and will there rot. They have neither money to fit them out—no seamen—and no provisions for the seamen; and of course no means to procure any.

"The treaty between the Portuguese and Tunisians has expired, and as no treaty has been concluded upon, the Portuguese detain all Tunisians; at least they cruise off here and prevent vessels under that flag from going through the Straits. Two Portuguese frigates, and some smaller vessels, are here watching the Tunisians. Two sloops of war and a schooner under that flag are here, and afraid to move."

Splendid Declaration of Independence.

JUST published and for sale by BEN. O. TYLER, a splendid copy of this important state paper, with fac similies of all the signatures of those sages who declared us free, and pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to support it. The publisher copied it himself from the original in the Department of State. This is the first and only copy of the fac simile of that invaluable document ever taken or published, after being on record more than 40 years.

CERTIFICATE.

"Department of State, Sep. 10, '17.

"The foregoing copy of the Declaration of Independence has been collated with the original instrument, and found correct I have myself examined the signatures to each. Those executed by Mr. Tyler are curiously exact imitations, so much so, that it would be difficult, if not impossible, for the closest scrutiny to distinguish them, were it not for the hand of time, from the originals.

RICHARD RUSH."

PATRONS.

Among the publisher's numerous patrons, are the president, vice-president, all the heads of departments, and many members of congress. At the head of the list stands the venerable Thomas Jefferson, from whom I have received a very polite letter, highly approving my publication.

TERMS.

This grand national work will be printed as fast as subscribed for, at $5 per copy. The publisher and engraver are natives, and the materials are all American; he therefore hopes to receive that patronage which the subject so richly merits. A prospectus and a sample is left at the reading room, market, Alexandria.

A liberal discount will be made to those who will purchase to sell again.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of b'ood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
